Thursday 29 July, 7pm

Harrington Church

Cello & Organ Duo

Will Harris and George Gillow – Clare College, Cambridge

Will and George are music students who have just graduated from Cambridge; George has also taken the FRCO exam. They have assembled music for cello and organ by Fauré, Saint-Saëns and Reger, together with a Bach cello suite and a selection of pieces to suit the 1887 organ.

This will be their début and we are delighted to host them at the start of their professional careers.

Tuesday 10 August, 6pm

Thorpe Underwood House

Organ Recital

Nigel Kerry – OLEM, Cambridge

Nigel is an accomplished performer who teaches organ at Oundle School as well as King's and St John's choir schools in Cambridge. His programme will include works by Handel, Pachelbel, Mendelssohn, Paul Manz and Fauré. Equipment will be set up for a Live Stream, so you have the choice of attending or watching the programme in the comfort of your home.

Eblana String Trio

Jonathan, Lucy and Peggy have been playing together for 15 years and now have a considerable following. They are visiting tutors at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire. In June they launched their first CD The King's Alchemist at the Charterhouse, London, with a concert in the presence of two of the composers whose music is featured: Sally Beamish and Hugh Wood. The CD will be available when we welcome them back to Harrington for another fabulous selection from the string trio repertoire.

Tea and cakes

Tickets £16 (under 18 - £8)

Sunday 5 December, 3.30pm

Harrington Church

Advent & Christmas Music

The Swarbrick Singers

Ian Clarke presents his traditional programme of familiar and less well-known choral music for Advent and Christmas, interspersed with organ chorales. Given the success of the concert last year, we have decided to stage it in the church again: this time everyone will be able to join in singing the carols!

Mulled wine and mince pies

Tickets £18
